

Brundall Breaks

HERNE LODGE

Situated in Brundall, Norfolk, Herne Lodge is easily reached by car or by train. Brundall is a delightful village approximately 6 miles from the city of Norwich and is well served with excellent road links and frequent trains to Norwich or to the coast.

The village itself is well equipped with many amenities including a Supermarket, post office, pharmacy, pubs, restaurants etc.

Nearby nature reserves offer great bird watching facilities, along with numerous walks and cycle routes.

Many (broads) activities also can be sampled from the local boat yards offering day boat hire on a seasonal basis.

But what must be one of THE major attractions of Brundall is the quality of fishing available in the River Yare: pike, bream and roach abound.

Sorry, NO SMOKING and
NO PETS inside the Lodge

Looking out over the River Yare, Herne Lodge is a charming two bedroom riverside lodge with private mooring, perfect if you are interested in sailing, fishing or just lazing by the River

- Well furnished living/dining room
- Two bedrooms (1 double and 1 double/1 single bunk)
- LPG gas central heating via radiators
- Modern bathroom with electric shower and over hip bath
- Fully equipped kitchen
- Wide screen TV, Free View digital receiver, DVD player CD/ radio player
- Free use of 3 person rowing boat
- Large outside decked area complete with garden furniture
- Unfenced river frontage
- 35ft private quay heading for fishing or mooring
- Off road parking for 2 cars

14 Riverside Estate
Brundall
Norwich
Norfolk
NR13 5PL

01493 701124

www.brundallbreaks.co.uk

traceypeachment@hotmail.co.uk

